

This matter needs investigating. Outrageously, my shares in XO Communications were in essence stolen and declared worthless BEFORE any bankruptcy proceedings were even begun. We "small" investors were skunked just as the Enron investors were. Mr. Forstmann who sometimes sits behind me in church needs to visit the confessional.